

Ferruccio Damiani.

Full Professor at UNITO (University of Turin, Italy) and Adjunct Professor at HVL (Western Norway University of Applied Sciences, Norway). Laurea Degree (BSc+MSc) and PhD in Computer Science from UNITO in 1993 and 1998, respectively. Founder and coordinator of the MoVeRe research group (<http://di.unito.it/movere/>), which is engaged in research activities that span from foundational aspects to tools for supporting rigorous engineering of industrial systems. Email: ferruccio.damiani@unito.it

Gianluca Torta.

Researcher at UNITO (University of Turin, Italy). Laurea Degree (BSc+MSc) and PhD in Computer Science from UNITO in 1997 and 2004, respectively. Software developer at MICROSOFT (Redmond US) from 1998 to 2001. Member of the MoVeRe research group (<http://di.unito.it/movere/>), which is engaged in research activities that span from foundational aspects to tools for supporting rigorous engineering of industrial systems. Email: gianluca.torta@unito.it

Giorgio Audrito.

Researcher (RTDb) at UNITO (University of Turin, Italy), MSc and PhD in Mathematics from UNITO in 2011 and 2016, respectively. Bronze medal at the International Olympiads in Informatics in 2004 (Athens – GR) and 2005 (Nowi Sacz – PL). Member of the Olympic Committee for the Italian Olympiads in Informatics, as representative of the Italian University. Member of the MoVeRe research group (<http://di.unito.it/movere/>). Email: giorgio.audrito@unito.it